

Cookie Policy

This is the Cookie Policy for Quality Education Solutions Ltd t/a QES, issued in accordance with the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR).

Cookies are small text files placed on your device when you visit internet sites. Cookies can be used for things such as allowing a website to remember you, to store and honour your preferences and settings, or enabling you to sign in where relevant. Websites may use cookies for detecting what kind of device you have in order to present content in the best way, for a language switch and/or for other purposes. Cookies do not collect or store any person-identifiable information.

This website (www.qes-online.com) uses a type of cookie called Session Cookies. The name of the cookie used is ASP.NET_SessionId and is used to identify your session between requests, i.e. between pages loading, and it expires at the end of the session (for example, when you close your browser).

You can use the controls in your internet browser to control the data collected by cookies, for example by limiting how the websites you visit are able to use cookies, or to withdraw your cookie consent by clearing or blocking cookies.

You can refuse the use of cookies by selecting the appropriate settings in your browser. However, if you do this you may lose some useful functionality such as personalisation.
